La Jolla Institute Board elects local business leader Mark Fischer to its membership

Mark Fischer, a successful local business leader and strong community supporter was recently elected to the La Jolla Institute for Allergy & Immunology's Board of Directors. "Mr. Fischer is a 'can do' kind of individual who has built his company into one of the leaders in its field," said Mitchell Kronenberg, Ph.D., the La Jolla Institute's president and chief scientific officer. "This attitude, coupled with his personal passion for fighting immune-based diseases, will make him a real asset on our Board of Directors."
